St. Johns, Thursday, Oct. 29.

LOUIS K. CHURCH, of New York, has been appointed Chief Justice of Dakota.

Gov. ZULICK is reported as being solid on the Indian and Mormon questions.

The people of southern Arizona are gushing over the appointment of Gov. Zulick.

The weather is reported as being very cold in and about the San Francisco Mountains.

The appointment of a new United States District Attorney for Arizona is the next thing in order.

The President seems to have made a clean sweep last week as regards the judiciary of Arizona.

The new management of the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad has made a reduction in the wages of all their employees. The same is to take effect the first of November.

Ex-UNITED STATES MARSHAL Morrison, of New Mexico, who is now a resident of this county, is reported to have stumped the state of Ohio, for Foraker. Verily, Apache county is coming to the front.

Last Thursday the President appointed W. W. Porter, of California, and William H. Barnes, of Illinois, to be Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of Arizona, vice Judges Fitzgerald and Pinney, retired.

The Tombstone, a newspaper published at the sepulchre city of Arizona, has been enlarged to a seven-column daily, and since the "devil" has washed the rollers, it presents a very creditable and neat appearance.

The bid of Carle, Croley & Abernethy, of Stockton, Cal., was the lowest received by the Directors for the erection of the Insane Asylum at Phoenix, and was by them accepted, and the contractors notified to give bonds. The building is to cost $42,999.06.

A boy, about eleven years old, named Lee Harris, living at Williams in this Territory, while playing with a Winchester rifle, accidentally shot himself, the ball entering his forehead, killing him instantly. It is needless to remark that the gun was not loaded.

A BEEF canning establishment is running successfully and doing a large business at Deming, New Mexico. Such an establishment in this section of country would be of great benefit to our cattle growers, by creating a home market for our surplus steers.

It is to be hoped that the new Chief Justice of this Territory, as well as the recently appointed Associate Justices, will fall into the ranks of their predecessors as regards the Mormon problem, and treat the polygamists features of it, with that severity that the nefarious crime demands.

JOHN O. SHIELDS, Michigan, has been appointed by the President to be Chief Justice of Arizona, vice Sumner Howard, retired. If the new Chief Justice only proves himself to be as efficient government official, as did his honored predecessor, it is all that the people of Arizona will ask for.

The death of Cardinal McClosky, leaves a hat at the disposal of the Pope. The practice is that the Archbishops pick three names, of which the Pope selects one, and he becomes the head of the church in his country.

POSTMASTER KRIDER and James Haas, of Mineral Park, indulged in a little friendly shooting-scraper last week. The Justice bound them over in the sum of $1,000 each to keep the peace for six months, during which time it is expected they will get cooled off or become better shots.

CAPT. JOHN G. BOURKE, who accompanied General Crook, on the Sierra Madre expedition, denies the report, which has been generally circulated, that Crook was actually captured by the Indians. Captain Bourke has the reputation of being an officer thoroughly acquainted with Indian affairs, and also a trustworthy gentleman, and his statement in regard to this matter, is undoubtedly correct.

CALDER HERRING, a printer formerly of Colfax county, New Mexico, but who is now tending bar for Johnny Berry, at Flagstaff, is said to be the man who was instrumental in the removal of Chief Justice Vincent of New Mexico. Herring was formerly a printer employed on the Colfax County Stockman, the newspaper that printed the fraudulent land entries. Herring made several affidavits in regard to the land steals which were used by Inspector Hobbs in his reports to the Department.

The county officials of Pima county made a grand kick last week against the Board of Supervisors of that county, for their refusal to order the Treasurer to transfer the surplus funds in the general fund to make up the deficiency in the salary fund, and caused a writ of mandamus to be issued. Judge Fitzgerald decided the case in favor of the officials, and ordered the Board of Supervisors to transfer sufficient funds from the general fund, to pay the outstanding salary warrants, issued last quarter to the county officials.

ROVING bands of the Navajo Indians, whose reservation is in the northeastern portion of this Territory and the northwestern portion of New Mexico, are constantly traveling around the country, at times being over two hundred miles from the agency, as will be seen by reference to almost any daily issue of a Santa Fe paper. These people who have had some of the best lands in the two Territories, set apart for their exclusive use, on which no settler is allowed to trespass, should be made to live upon, and not be occupying land and monopolizing water privileges that do not belong to them.

GEORGE COLE, charged with perjury in connection with land entries, was arrested by a Deputy U. S. Marshal, near Las Cruces, New Mexico, last Thursday. After his arrest he attempted to escape by knocking down one of the guards, but was brought to a halt by several shots being fired at him. If all the individuals who have committed perjury in connection with final land entries in Arizona and New Mexico, during the past few years, were arrested, tried and convicted, it would not only require the enlargement of the penitentiaries, but would almost depopulate certain sections of the two Territories.

JUDGE WILLIAM A. VINCENT, of New Mexico, who was suspended by the President as Chief Justice of that Territory, on account of his selecting Stephen W. Dorsey to draw the grand and petit jurors of the Colfax County District Court, has been officially beheaded, and Judge E. V. Long, of Indiana, appointed to fill the vacant chair. The fact that gigantic land swindles have been carried on for the past dozen years or more, in New Mexico, whereby a certain clique of sharpers, prominent among whom was S. W. Dorsey, have stolen a large portion of that Territory, has undoubtedly been brought to more than a passing notice of the Executive, who is determined that they shall be rooted out, and Vincent, like the Mormon polygamists, had to go.

HON. C. C. BEAN, Delegate to Congress from this Territory, with his family, says the Prescott Courier, has left for Washington, where we wish him great success in securing rights from the Federal Government. Mr. Bean is a Republican, elected by Democrats, for reasons not worth mentioning. He is interested in mines, etc., and will, no doubt, do his best to advance the mining industry, which is the promoter of almost all other Arizona industries. Although the Courier did its best to defeat Mr. Bean, on account of his politics, now that he is our representative, it proposes to aid him in every honest move he may make for the advancement of Arizona and her trusting, energetic people.

It is feared by many on the borders of the reservation, says the Southwestern Stockman, and who are well acquainted with the Apache character and disposition, that a general uprising of the Indians is contemplated. More especially is this to be dreaded if the Indian scouts now in the service are to be discharged and allowed to retain their arms and ammunition. This would, indeed, be the crowning outrage of the many that have marked the management of Indian and military affairs in this Territory and New Mexico. While not disposed to unnecessarily alarm the public, we predict that unless there be an immediate change in the command of this district, it will be found that our troubles are but begun.

DURING Judge Haynes' argument of a motion to quash indictments found by the U. S. Grand Jury against Royal A. Johnson and Lewis Wolfley, the Grand Jury came into court and reported that Surveyor General Johnson had been subpoenaed to appear before their body and to bring certain field notes as evidence. This, Judge Haynes stated, General Johnson had refused to do, on the ground that the papers were records of the United States; that it was not evident that the Grand Jury desired the documents for any specific purpose, and that the jury should have stated the matter of investigation before asking for public records. The court instructed the United States Attorney to consult with the Grand Jury, but did not pass upon General Johnson's refusal to deliver the papers in question.—Tucson Times.

McINTYRE was recently acquitted, says the Santa Fe New Mexican, of complicity in the celebrated American Valley murder of two years ago. He boasts that his accusers, the principal witnesses, have turned out thus: Moore, Courtwright and Jim McIntire are dead. Sullivan and Frank Hogan are both in the Territorial penitentiary for cattle and horse stealing. Kid Joy was convicted of stage and train robberies directly after his testimony, and sent to the pen. Hank Andrews was hanged in Socorro county. McAllister ran away from the country to avoid being arrested for embezzlement or perjury. Matt Dry ran off with McAllister's wife, and, leaving her in a house of ill-fame, was arrested somewhere in the Indian Territory and sent to the penitentiary. Gilmore, another of the gang, stole several horses from Col. Marmon at Laguna, killed two men, was captured and hung.

We are getting now a glimpse of land operations in New Mexico, says the San Francisco Bulletin, that suggests grabbing there on a large, though not strictly original system. The central figure is represented to be Stephen W. Dorsey, not unknown to fame in connection with the Star Route scandals of four years ago. The process is outlined to consist of spurious Spanish grants. All things in this line are possible to those who have control of surveyors, recorders and the judicial machinery. One Judge of the Supreme Court of the Territory has resigned, and another has been suspended. It was known for some time past that New Mexico was turning out by some unknown method a group of feudal barons, the extent of whose possessions was simply bewildering in vastness. Descriptions have found their way into the press of the baronial halls, which some of those who had only recently settled in the Territory were constructing. The new Governor had himself inaugurated on Montezuma's Day, and faced the east when he took the oath of office. There has evidently been a high old time down there. There have been indications that the new Territory in time would bloom into an aristocratic commonwealth. Whether its projection in that direction is likely to be checked, depends very much on the vigor of the Administration. But the gang said to be implicated are hard fighters.

OFFICE OF THE APACHE COUNTY CATTLE INSPECTOR, NAVAJO SPRINGS, ARIZONA.
Notice is hereby given to all parties driving cattle into, or through, Apache County that the Territorial laws require all cattle so driven to be inspected by the officer appointed for that purpose. That the undersigned has been duly appointed by the territorial Governor, Inspector, and by virtue of such appointment is obliged to enforce observance of the law. Owners of cattle will greatly facilitate the business by giving five days notice of the time and place to the undersigned where, in the interest of all parties, such inspection can best be made.
G. A. ZEIGER, Inspector.

THE ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY.

The Land Grant of this Company, in alternate sections extends across the Territories of New Mexico and Arizona, between the 34th and 36th degrees of north latitude. It is 650 miles long and 80 miles wide, and includes some of the best grazing lands of both Territories. In the valleys are many desirable tracts of agricultural land, susceptible of irrigation. A sufficiency of water has been found wherever cattle and sheep have been grazed, and large herds have been grazed in the country ever since the coming of the Mexicans. Wells have been sunk and good water has been obtained.
A stream of running water, the San Jose, rises near the summit of the Sierra Madre, and runs 75 miles eastward to the Rio Puerco, and the company's road follows the whole length of its valley. There are numerous fine valleys opening into the valley of the San Jose, flanked by grassy and wooded hills, upon which there is an open growth of small cedar and pinon. There is an excellent belt of good pine timber on the mountains, near the railroad, and the whole length of its valley. There are also good crops of corn, sorghum, oats, barley and garden vegetables are grown by irrigation, the finest of potatoes, wheat, barley and garden vegetables of large size and fine quality have been successfully grown without irrigation on the slopes of the San Francisco mountains.
On these mountains there is an extensive timber belt, diversified by beautiful valleys and parks, with good water and wonderful canyons, through which the road passes. In fact, the whole of the country traversed by the road is very picturesque and beautiful, and many towns are being built along its route.
The Valley of the Rio Grande, at Albuquerque is 5,000 feet above the sea, and the passes of the Sierra Madre and the San Francisco mountains, in Arizona, have elevations of 7,000, with a depression at Winslow, on the line of Colorado, where the altitude is 5,000 feet; the climate is mild and salubrious. Cattle and sheep graze throughout the year and do not need to be sheltered or grain fed during the winter. The nights are cool during the summer.
The Company is now prepared to make sales of its grazing lands in quantities of 20,000 acres or more, at prices ranging from one dollar (or even less for larger quantities), to one dollar and a half an acre, upon payment of one-fourth the purchase value at date of contract of sale, the remainder in payments as may be agreed upon, bearing six per cent interest; and irrigable agricultural lands in tracts of forty acres or more.
The belt of the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Land Grant includes the only available grazing land in the country south of the Missouri River that can be purchased in large areas; and the section of country through which this belt passes will become the best beef producing region of the United States.
Maps of the Land Grant will be forwarded on application and properly accredited persons desiring to inspect grazing lands, with a view to purchase, and establish stock ranches, will be given facilities for that purpose.
THOS. S. SEDGWICK, Land Commissioner, Albuquerque, N. M.
